Have you helped the environment today?

Happy Earth Day! Celebrate this year by joining in the City Wide Spring Clean Up. Grab your classmates and head out to the playground to pick up litter that has accumulated during the winter months.

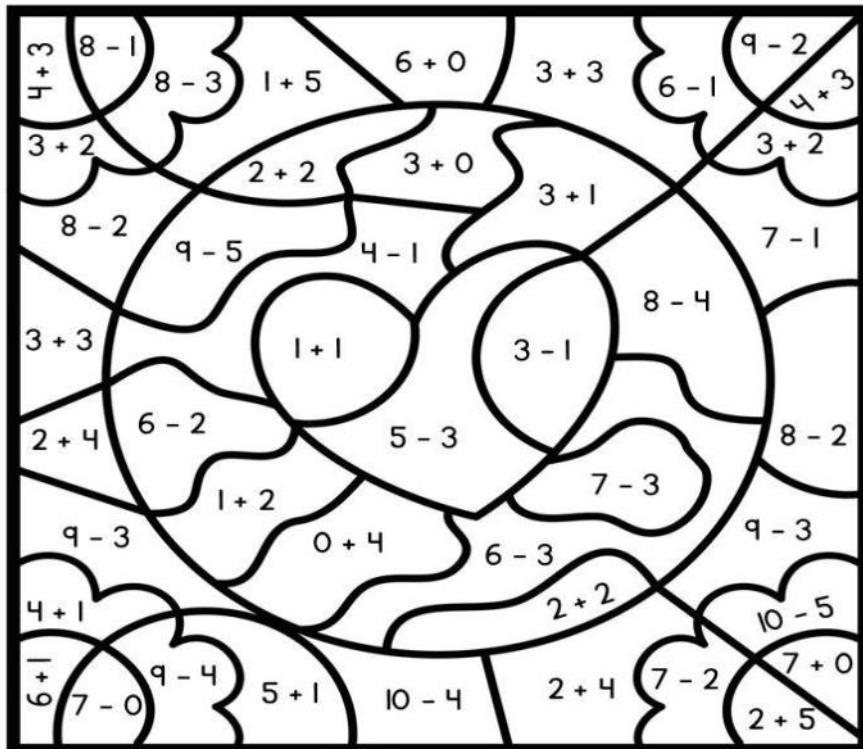

The first ever official earth day was back in 1970 in America and the inspiration to start the event came from viewing the aftermath of a California oil spill in 1969, This year marks the 52nd earth day. Today 1 billion people world wide take a part in earth day every year!
